Risk Assessment (Provided by Coface)

Country rating: C - A very uncertain political and economic outlook and a business environment with many troublesome weaknesses can have a significant impact on corporate payment behavior. Corporate default probability is high.

Business Climate rating: D - The business environment is very difficult. Corporate financial information is rarely available and when available usually unreliable. The legal system makes debt collection very unpredictable. The institutional framework has very serious weaknesses. Intercompany transactions can thus be very difficult to manage in the highly risky environments rated D.

Strengths

- Significant oil production, liquefied natural gas and diamond production with development prospects
- Considerable economic potential: iron, gold, leather, agriculture, fishing, hydroelectricity
- Immense arable land (over 35 million hectares, 28% of the territory)
- Multilateral and bilateral financial support

Weaknesses

- Heavy dependence on hydrocarbons (95% of exports, 60% of budget revenues and nearly a third of GDP), as well as on China (main creditor and customer)
- Low contribution of agriculture to GDP (10%), despite providing more than half (56%) of jobs
- Depletion of existing oil fields
- Poor business environment: corruption, bureaucracy, slow pace of reform
- Infrastructure deficiencies
- High unemployment (28% among young people), strong social inequalities, poverty and regional disparities
- Conflict with separatists in the Cabinda exclave
